Department Reports:

Public Works: Mr. Ratza reported that everything has been going good, they have been very busy. He reported that with the heavy downpours there were 3 spots where the drains got plugged up. On Gleason St, the lines were full of tree roots, this has now been cleared. The drain at the lagoon that drains the soccer fields was plugged and on Fulmer Road by the cemetery had gotten packed with mud due to a Township project at the cemetery. The township will pay for the cleaning of this drain. Mr. Ratza reported that the high school got a new meter today.

Selich moved Slough seconded PASSED the motion to accept the DPW Report as printed.

2. Jaruzel Property by DPW garage – Tabled until further notice

New Business

1. Mark & Deanna Skelcy – ½ Marathon in 2025

Mark & Deanna Skelcy discussed having a ½ Marathon July 19th or 20, 2025 (leaning towards the 20th) from Millington to Columbiaville on Southern Links Trailway. They usually get 100 people or so. Packet pickup’s could be at Library or a restaurant. The Village Council would be in favor of this and they will keep us informed of progress on this event.

2. Sheila Haynes – 4720 Main

Ms. Haynes discussed the added 4 units to her property garbage and it was suggested that she check into a dumpster, which she will look into.

3. 8633 State – Shana McPherson – no show

4. Safebuilt – Joe Waters home 8453 Atwood

Mr. Reinert offered to call the lawyer to see what the next steps are for this property.

5. Jody’s Park – flower beds

DDA would like to take this over and get someone to do the flower beds.

6. Employee Opt Out of Health Insurance

Putting together an opt-out option will be in the works.
